INTRODUCTION

This publication is one of a series containing statistics on the waterborne commerce of the United States during the calendar year 1980. Four of these publications present detailed data on the movements of commodities and vessels at the ports and harbors and on the waterways and canals of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, and the fifth contains summary data of the country as a whole. The numbers of the publications and the areas covered are:

Area

- Part 1. Atlantic Coast
- Part 2. Gulf Coast, Mississippi River System, and Antilles
- Part 3. Great Lakes
- Part 4. Pacific Coast, Alaska, and Hawaii
- Part 5. Waterborne Commerce of the United States (National Summaries)

Both the foreign and domestic commerce of the United States by water are included. Data on the foreign commerce were supplied to the Corps of Engineers by the Bureau of the Census; data for the compilation of the domestic statistics were collected by the several offices of the Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army, in compliance with various acts of Congress. The principal provision governing the collection of these data is included in the River and Harbor Act of September 22, 1922:

Sec. 11. That owners, agents, masters, and clerks of vessels and other craft plying upon the navigable waters of the United States, and all individuals and corporations engaged in transporting their own goods upon the navigable waters of the United States, shall furnish such statements relative to vessels, passengers, freight and tonnage as may be required by the Secretary of War: Provided, that this provision shall not apply to those rafting logs, except upon a direct request upon the owner to furnish specific information.

That every person or persons offending against the provisions of this section shall, for each and every offense, be liable to a fine of $100 or imprisonment not exceeding two months, to be enforced in any district court in the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed.

While the information as now collected and compiled is designed to meet the administrative requirements of the Department of the Army in connection with the duties assigned by Congress, it also provides useful data for other governmental departments, commercial and shipping concerns, and others interested in transportation.

Waterborne traffic movements were reported to the Corps of Engineers by all vessel operators of record on prescribed forms approved by the Office of Management and Budget under the Federal Reports Act of 1942 for those movements of their vessels which were classified as domestic traffic; namely, between United States ports, continental and noncontiguous, and on the inland rivers, canals, and connecting channels of the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, excluding the Panama Canal. The reports were generally submitted on the basis of a vessel movement completed in one direction and, for movements with cargo, the origin and destination of the water transportation of each individual commodity. In compiling the data, the entire movement was included in the year in which the movement was completed even though the shipment may have originated in the preceding year, except that, beginning with calendar year 1961 statistics, a cutoff date of 28 February was established for the processing of reports from vessel operators covering the prior year's completed movements. Hence, reports of movements completed in 1980 but not reported to the Corps of Engineers until after 28 February 1981 will be included in the next year's, 1981, statistics rather than in this publication, while reports of movements completed in 1979 but reported to the Corps after 28 February 1980 are included in this publication.

Sponsored by the Office of Statistical Policy, Office of Management and Budget, a uniform system of classification for freight was developed with co-operation of all Federal agencies engaged in collecting and compiling data on shipping. This classification, the Commodity Classification for Domestic Waterborne Commerce, is used for data on the foreign and domestic commerce presented in these publications, although some minor modifications exist in the foreign data which were necessitated by Bureau of the Census policies and procedures.

The domestic traffic includes all commercial movements between points in the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. Traffic with the Panama Canal Zone is treated as foreign commerce. Cargo moved for the military agencies in commercial vessels is reported as ordinary commercial cargo; military cargo moved in Department of Defense vessels is omitted from these statistics.

All movements between the United States and foreign countries and between Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands, U.S.A., and foreign countries are classified as foreign traffic. Trade between United States territories and possessions, i.e. Guam, Wake, American Samoa, etc., and foreign countries is excluded.

These data are furnished to the Corps of Engineers by the Bureau of the Census under a working arrangement sponsored by the Office of Statistical Policy, Office of Management and Budget. The data are confined to movements by water, and are reconcilable with published reports of the Bureau of the Census. Shipments of domestic merchandise and re-exports of foreign merchandise are termed exports. The imports include inbound merchandise for direct consumption and entries into custom bonded storage and manufacturing warehouses. Intransit merchandise, defined by the Bureau of the Census as merchandise coming into the United States from a foreign country and shipped to a foreign country without having been entered as an import, is treated as an import when unloaded from a vessel and as an export when loaded on a vessel. Export shipments for use of the United States Armed Forces abroad are excluded from the statistics as are import shipments on Department of Defense owned and operated vessels. Foreign trade data of territories and possessions other than Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, which are under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, were not furnished to the Corps of Engineers by the Bureau of the Census and are excluded from the statistics of both agencies.

Export shipments under the various foreign aid programs on Department of Defense operated vessels, either American Flag commercial vessels under time, voyage, or space charter or vessels owned and operated by the Department of Defense, and various items (listed by the Census) which affect national security are not published in terms of the individual commodities shipped. Instead, a lump-sum tonnage figure is compiled and appears in these tables as commodity code 9999, "Department of Defense controlled cargo and Special Category Items."

The 1980 statistics on waterborne exports of domestic and foreign merchandise and non-Department of Defense shipments of Special Category commodities reflect fully compiled data for shipments to Canada individually valued at $2,000 and over combined with estimated data for shipments valued $251-$1,999, based on a 10-percent sample of such shipments. For countries other than Canada, the export statistics reflect fully compiled data for shipments valued $1,000 and over combined with estimated data for shipments valued $251-$999, based on a 50-percent sample of such shipments. Data on export shipments valued under $251 are excluded from this report.

Import statistics for 1980 exclude data on shipments valued $250 and under reported on both formal and informal entries. Informal entries generally contain items valued not more than $250.

Foreign trade data furnished by Census are based on reports processed for Census' monthly data January through December and represent statistical year rather than calendar year data.

The figures on ton-miles are computed by the Corps of Engineers; each ton-mile figure reflects only the distance each ton of cargo, foreign or domestic, moved on the waterway described in the section for which the figure is reported. The summary of ton-miles for the entire United States contained in Part 5 includes movements on the inland waterways and Great Lakes System only; cargoes, foreign and domestic, of deep-sea vessels are included only for that portion of the voyage that occurred in inland rivers, canals, or connecting channels—neither the carriage on the oceans and the Gulf of Mexico nor the tonnage moved among the territories and possessions, "Intra-territory Traffic," are taken into account.

Trips of vessels at ports are reported as inbound, which represents the number of entrances or arrivals; and outbound, which represents the number of clearances or departures. On the waterways, the number of trips signifies the number of individual vessel movements on the waterway in each direction; a single trip is counted for each vessel using the waterway in a continuous direction regardless of the number of stops made on the waterway. Some towboat trips and empty barge moves are sampled to expedite processing and reduce cost. Even with sampling; however, the number of towboat trips are calculated from better than 70% of the total number of towboat moves reported and the number of barge trips are derived from better than 85% of the total number of barge moves reported. The number of trips reported includes vessels engaged in foreign trade, which are furnished by the Bureau of the Census based on Customs Entrance and Clearance forms. Complete information on trips of vessels, ferry and other, not required to clear formally was not furnished by the Bureau of Customs beginning with data for the year 1969. Adjustments are made to the trip counts, if necessary, to more accurately reflect actual traffic patterns (e.g. inbound vs. outbound trip counts).

Customs regulations with regard to entrance and clearance do not provide all data as required by the Corps of Engineers where supplementary information could be obtained, adjustments were made by the Corps of Engineers to reflect the true volume of vessel movements in and out of channels and harbors reported in these publications.

Excluded from these figures are United States Army and Navy vessels, such as Army transports and Navy tankers entering or clearing without commercial cargo, and foreign military and naval craft.

Some duplication may exist in the number of vessel trips at ports for those American Flag vessels engaging both foreign and domestic trade on the same voyage. Since movements of vessels and cargo between two United States ports are reported to the Corps of Engineers, and entrance and clearance must be obtained from Customs at each port of call while foreign cargoes are aboard, those vessels engaged in combined foreign and domestic movements may be reported twice.

Draft, in all cases, is the distance from water level to the lowest point of the vessel under-water and is measured when the vessel is completely stopped-either tied to a dock or at anchor. The draft under way-while the vessel is moving-is dependent on many factors, such as speed of the vessel and depth and width of the channel, and varies from channel to channel. Channel depth of at least 3 feet more than the draft of a vessel at dock is required where vessels must be operated at slow speed. Channel depth of 5 feet more than the draft of a vessel at dock is required in channels where vessels can be operated at more efficient and economical speeds.

Passenger arrivals and departures on the various waterways and channels and at ports include passengers engaged in foreign travel. While the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice, no longer provides foreign passenger data to the Waterborne Commerce Statistics Center, foreign passengers traveling between Canada and the United States in the Great Lakes and Alaska areas are reported to the Corps of Engineers from other sources available to the Corps. In addition, the New England Division has been able to obtain foreign passenger data for calendar year 1980 in Bar Harbor, Lubec, Eastport and Portland Harbor.

Foreign data on various connecting channels having no terminal facilities, such as Cape Cod Canal, and Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, are not available from Census records. Hence, the Corps of Engineers developed such data from canal records.

SECTION 1 of this publication presents comparative statements of commerce for preceding years and the detailed freight traffic for calendar year 1980 of harbors and waterways in the area covered by this Part of the statistics series. SECTION 2 presents data on the movements of vessels at the harbors and on the waterways included in the first section.

TERMS FOR KIND OF TRAFFIC

The terms applied to the kinds of traffic as found in these publications are explained as follows:

Pertaining to Ports

Imports and exports.-These terms apply to traffic between the United States and foreign ports, including the Canal Zone. Traffic of U.S. Great Lakes ports with Canada is supplemented by the term "Canadian" to differentiate it from overseas traffic.

Coastwise receipts and shipments.-These terms apply to domestic traffic receiving a carriage over the ocean, or the Gulf of Mexico, e.g. New Orleans to Baltimore, New York to Puerto Rico, San Francisco to Hawaii, or Puerto Rico to Hawaii. Traffic between Great Lakes ports and seacoast ports, when having a carriage over the ocean, is also termed "coastwise." The Chesapeake Bay and Puget Sound are internal bodies of water; therefore, traffic con- fined to these areas is "internal" rather than "coastwise."

Lake-wise receipts and shipments.-These terms apply to traffic between United States ports on the Great Lakes System. The Great Lakes System is treated as a separate system rather than as a part of the inland system.

Internal receipts and shipment.-These terms apply to traffic between ports or landings wherein the entire movement takes place on inland waterways. Also termed internal are movements involving carriage on both inland waterways and waters of the Great Lakes; inland movements that cross short stretches of open waters which link inland systems, marine products, sand and gravel taken directly from beds of the oceans, the Gulf of Mexico and important areas thereof; and movements between offshore installations and inland waterways.

Local.-Movements of freight within the confines of a port whether the port has only one or several arms or channels, except car-ferry and general ferry, are termed "local." The term is also applied to marine products, sand, and gravel taken directly from the Great Lakes.

Intraterritory receipts and shipments.-These terms apply to traffic between ports in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, U.S.A., which are considered as a single unit.

Pertaining to Rivers, Federal and Private Canals, Connecting Channels, and Intracoastal Waterways

The terms "imports," "exports," "coastwise receipts," "coastwise shipments," "internal receipts," and "internal shipments" are used as at ports.

Upbound and downbound.-These terms are applied to movements within the confines of a river, intracoastal waterway, canal, or a segment of one of these channels as described in the "Section included" for each channel.

Inbound and outbound.-Traffic moving from one waterway into another is termed "outbound" in the case of the shipping waterway and "inbound" with respect to the receiving waterway.

Through traffic.-Traffic moving through a waterway to and from points on other waterways is termed "through traffic."

General Terms

Freight reported under the terms "car ferry" or "general ferry" is not directly included in the port or channel tonnage, but is separately stated and tabulated.
